

Neck Foot

The neck foot is the section of the neck that is inserted into the instrument body, thus forming the transition from neck to body. The shape of the neck base is important for the violinists playing experience and is usually formed using his input.

back